The Mestre Lluís Andreu primary school choir, composed of roughly thirty pupils between years four and six and the group's director, music teacher Santi Ramírez, performed four Christmas carols to Formentera residents at the island's day centre. The crowd of seniors gave the boys and girls a rollicking applause, and had as much fun at the intimate performance as the singers themselves.

16 December 2019
Department of Communication
Consell de Formentera