President of the Formentera Council, Jaume Ferrer, speaking for the entire administration, gave a strongly-worded condemnation of the attacks that occurred last night in Paris and offered his condolences to the victims and their families. He declared he hoped for a speedy recovery for all the injured.

The president, a handful of department heads of the Council, different political representatives and residents of the island took part in a minute of silence today at noon in the plaça de la Constitució as an expression of Formentera's support for and solidarity with the people of France.
