

Formentera local police have brought charges for 15 counts of itinerant vending at Espalmador, Illetes and els Arenals beaches which allegedly occurred between July 31 and August 7.

Based on the allegations, law enforcement forces not only disassembled a stand at Espalmador beach where fruit, refreshments and cocktails were sold, but they also dismantled two supply points, confiscating 165 bottles of water, 80 coconuts, 70 canned soft drinks and beers, 62 dresses and bathing suits, 146 bracelets and 10 rings.