This Thursday, 26 January, Antoni Ballester, father, educator and secondary school teacher with a PhD from the University of the Balearic Islands (UIB), will lead a talk titled 'The importance of educating: how to motivate 'as part of the Talks for Families and Teachers series organised by the Office of Social Welfare of the Consell de Formentera.

All sessions are held in the municipal auditorium (sala de plens) and are open to the general public. Childcare will be provided on site. Individuals who wish to attend can reserve their place by emailing educaciosocial@co nselldeformentera.cat or by calling 971 321 271.

23 January 2023 Communications Office Consell de Formentera

