

The Formentera government's Language Advisory Service has announced open registration for adult Catalan-language learners interested in preparing for the Balearic government's September round of official exams. From 19 May to 4 June, students can choose from among four morning and four afternoon groups: two at the A2 level, two B1, two B2 and, finally, two C1-C2, which will be taught together.

Instruction is scheduled to start 14/15 June and end in time for exams (enrolment for which is now closed), and classes will be held in classrooms of the Formentera Escola de Música i Dansa.

Free courses and limited space

Groups will be capped at twenty to ensure compliance with distancing measures and enrolment priority will be given to students enrolled in the official tests.

The course timetable is as follows:

A2 (Monday and Wednesday, 8.00am – 9.00am | Mon./Wed., 6.30pm – 7.30pm);

B1 (Tuesday and Thursday, 8.00am – 9.00am | Mon./Wed., 7.30pm – 8.30pm);
