

At 12 noon today, before the entrance of the Casa Consistorial, Council officials observed one minute of silence in memory of last Friday's attack on the Spanish embassy in Kabul, which left two police officers dead. Local police, employees of the Council and a handful of island residents all came together to express their condemnation of the suicide bombing. Flags flew at half mast as a show of collective condolence.