

Joining a chorus of support touched off by the regional government in Palma, the Formentera Council announces it will observe a minute of silence for the human lives lost in Majorcan towns battered by heavy storms.

Formentera residents are invited to the Council's front steps at 12 noon today, where administration chief Jaume Ferrer will be joined by numerous council members and administration staff in respecting a minute of silence following the ravages caused by strong storms in Sant Llorenç des Cardassar and several towns in Mallorca's Llevant area.
