

President's office councillor Bartomeu Escandell was joined by local police chief Félix Ramos and island schools' police liaison—Policia Tutor Pilar Daviu—in attending “Local police's place in schools”, an event at the European Parliament's hall of ceremonies.

Yesterday and today in Brussels (Belgium), the Govern balear's General Directorate of Emergencies and Interior organised a series of activities and invited representatives from the Formentera Council and other local administrations across the islands. Councillor Escandell also took part in a meeting and attended a presentation about the Policia Tutor programme with members of the Govern and European Commission.
