

Pep Mayans of Can Xumeu Petit celebrates his 101th year today at his home in La Mola. On behalf of the people of Formentera, the island's deputy premiere and councillor for the elderly Ana Juan congratulated Mayans and offered him a bouquet of flowers and traditional desserts. Numerous family and friends congratulated Mayans and made sure he was in good company all day long. On a birthday walk, Mayans beheld vineyards and his pet pigeons, one of his great hobbies.

20 May 2021

Communications Department

Consell de Formentera