

The main objective of the Service is to assess and provide individual and group therapeutic interventions for users who need it. If the reverse is not possible to offer appropriate solutions, make the referral to the most appropriate professional to perform the operation. Also working directly with other team members facilitates the development of individualized programs to intervene directly framed within Psychology Service.

Composition: 1 psychologist

Timetable: Monday through Thursday from 9 to 14 h.

psicoleg@conselldeformentera.cat