

Doors at the 'Ajuntament Vell' exhibition space open this Monday 31 August at 7.00pm for Laura Maresc's Preludi. All week long save for Sundays and Monday mornings, islanders can see the show from 11.00am to 2.00pm and 7.00pm to 9.00pm until 12 September.

A reflection on the fragility of landscapes that works by turning the spotlight on nature, Preludi is an ensemble of sculpted work largely fashioned from objects in dialogue with their natural surroundings at the moment Maresc collects them. The artist's compositions occupy a playing field in perpetual, if fragile, equilibrium, and the concept of the nest —a recurring theme in Maresc's work— transports the beholder to place at once original and primitive. It is, according to the artist, a jumping-off point.
