

From Tuesday 27 September, Centre Antoni Tur "Gabrielet" will welcome the collective exhibition "Retorn al sentir", a convergence of artists with the idea of feeling the same energy. Participating artists include Anna Ametller, Paz Aguado, Natalia Lisinicchia, Irene Pons, Natalia Vik, Fabiana Schulz and Silvina Taffuri.

The exhibition, which will open at 7.00pm, consists of a set of pieces of varying artistic, audiovisual, music and dance techniques and features the participation of the movement workshop of Valeria del Vecchio and Pimpi. The theme of the pieces is "the return to feeling, the rootedness in the body, in sensoriality and sensuality; the return to the yin energy that all of us possess and which is often blocked", as highlighted in a text which accompanies the display.

The exhibition will be on view until 6 October, 11.00am to 2.00pm and 6.00pm to 9.30pm, Monday to Saturday.
