

The Consell de Formentera's Department of Sport reports that on Saturday the 5th, and Monday the 7th of October, islanders can see Fortaleza a la Napolitana at the cinema (Sala de Cultura). The show starts at 8.30pm and admission is €7.

With direction by Andrés Wacksman, Valeria Del Vecchio dances in a production by Fils Roulants. Fortaleza a la Napolitana is a touching expression of the contradiction between longing to be self-sufficient and the need for human warmth and protection from hardship. The piece speaks to the duality of a woman who goes through life wearing strength like a mask, and the fragility that proves there's no such thing as a mission to be accomplished.

The production runs 40 minutes and is intended for adult audiences. Space is limited. To reserve seats, send an email to vadelv@yahoo.com.
