

Consell de Formentera president Alejandra Ferrer sat down with Joan Francesc Ferrer, treasurer of the Formentera chapter of Obra Cultura Balear, and local culture chief Susana Labrador to sign a collaborative agreement on culture and heritage for the year 2020.

The Formentera government will sponsor up to €9,000 of the OCB's programming, which this year will include 'Primavera de Cultura' (Cultural Spring) and publication releases, lectures, round-table discussions, poetry readings and other events for the feast day of Sant Jordi. As a respected cultural entity, the group will also publish work designed to foment culture and the island's historical and natural heritage, plus offer consulting and oversee research as required.
