

On Sunday 27 March, GE Espalmador, in association with the Formentera Office of Sports, will host the 12th Formentera Road Cycling Race. Scores from the trial will count towards the Balearic Inter-Island Road Challenge. Category-three cyclists start the 46.8K circuit at 9.30am and cyclists in categories one and two will cover 82.5K and will set out at 11.30am. The races are open to men and women competing in the categories of Master 60, Master 50, Master 40, Master 30, Under 23, Cadet, Junior and Elite. Registrations will be open until 24 March for non-federated participants and until 25 March for those who are federated.

For the safety of participating athletes and to avoid accidents on the race route, the following roads and streets will be closed to traffic between 9.00am and 1.00pm: Avinguda de Joan Castelló i Guasch, Carrer Universitat, Carrer Barcelona, Carrer de Llevant, Carrer des Pla del Rei, Avinguda de la Mola and several sections of PM 820 and PM 820-II. As usual, if safety permits, cars will be allowed to pass in between the two races.
