

The Formentera Council's mobility office reports that the environmental group Que Celeste will once again stage a beach cleanup on Sunday, April 22.

The event will get under way at 11.00am and participants are being asked to meet in the es Ministre car park. Volunteer crews will be provided with rubbish bags and other materials to assist in the removal process, compliments of the Council and the Govern balear.

Apart from cleaning, volunteers will also be enlisted to bring tourists up to speed on the importance of keeping Formentera's beaches clean and throwing litter into dedicated bins near local swimming areas.
