

Today Ana Juan, President of the Consell de Formentera, signed the annual collaboration agreement with Juan Manuel Costa Escanellas, delegate of the Formentera Chamber of Commerce, which the Consell will provide with €7,000 to promote training, market research and communication in support of local commerce.

With this agreement, the Consell reinforces support for Formentera-based businesses and, especially, for Formentera commerce, by promoting training and encouraging budding entrepreneurs to start new business projects.
