

About twenty representatives of local associations, groups, primary and secondary schools and law enforcement as well as specialists from departments of local government took part in a meeting of the island's Social and Educational Network convened by the Formentera Office of Social Welfare (Conselleria de Benestar Social). Councillor of Social Welfare Rafael Ramírez and Councillor of Education and Culture Susana Labrador were also on hand at the meeting, which focused on assorted projects and initiatives afoot on the island, including efforts by the ANAR Foundation to help children and adolescents, the 'Don't drown in alcohol' campaign to tackle underage drinks sales and drinking, preparation of Formentera's newest drugs strategy, the Talks for Families and Teachers lecture series, a capacity building course for parents, the Comprehensive LGTBI Support Service and LGTBI Plan. Attendees also heard a review on upcoming activities planned for Children's Month.

10 November 2021
Communications Office
Consell de Formentera