The Formentera Office of Social Welfare is pleased to announce the various activities scheduled on the occasion of International Day of Persons with Diverse Abilities, 3 December. The activities began this week and will culminate on 15 December with an instalment of the series Talks for Families and Teachers (Xerrades per a families i docents).

The Association of People with Special Needs of Eivissa and Formentera (APNEEF), Fibromyalgia and Chronic Fatigue Syndrome Association of Eivissa and Formentera (AFFAC), Spanish Cancer Association (AECC), Formentera Day Centre and Consell de Formentera have organised the activities.

On Monday at 9.45pm, Formentera's public radio station, Ràdio Illa, broadcast the first instalment of Diversely Abled (Diversament hàbils), a series of talks with the participation of professionals in the field of integration and functional diversity.

This Thursday at 5.00pm, Maritza Caballero will offer a story time titled Contar contigo at the Punt de Lectura in the new Espai Cultural de Sant Ferran. The event is for the general public and differently abled two- to three-year-olds in particular. Seating is limited.

On Friday 2 December at 6.30pm, film fans can catch the short film CODA, organised in collaboration with Formentera Film, and A Silent Voice, a Japanime film. The screenings will be followed by a session in which youth can reflect on the two films.

On International Day of Persons with Diverse Abilities, Saturday 3 December, at 11.00am, a fundraising walk will start at Jardí de ses Eres.

On Thursday 15 December at 5.00pm, the programme will draw to a close with another instalment of the Xerrades series: Neus Martorell and Carmen Muñoz's talk "Educating in diversity" in the plenary hall (sala de plens) of the Consell de Formentera. To attend, make reservations by calling 971 321 271 or sending an e-mail to educaciosocial@conselldeformentera.cat

.

29 November 2022
Communications Office
Council of Formentera

