

The Consell de Formentera human resources department reports that the selection process is now under way in order to fill three openings for career public servants on the Formentera Local Police force. The positions are open to all applicants and will be determined by competitive exam. The terms of the offer can be viewed on the Spanish National Gazette (BOIB) as well as the Consell de Formentera website by clicking on Ofertes de feina (Job Offers). The positions figure among the 2021 listings for public-service employment at the C1 level.
