

Today Ana Juan, president and councillor for the elderly of the Consell de Formentera, signed collaboration agreements with two local seniors' clubs to maintain the centres and fund services and activities in 2023. The president signed an agreement with Julián Galindo, president of the Retirees and Pensioners' Club of Formentera (Sant Francesc) for a value of €12,500, and with Rita Costa, president of the Social Centre for the Elderly of Sant Ferran, for €9,500. In the days ahead, agreements will be signed with the rest of the old people's clubs on the island.
