

The lifeguards of the Consell de Formentera are continuing with a training course to improve care in emergencies. This week a course mixing theory and hands-on learning around medical care is being given to the new lifeguards who will join the service on Thursday 1 June. In addition, the Consell has announced it is accepting applicants to fill gaps in the current workforce. Four vacancies have been announced and applications can be submitted until 8 June.

https://conselldeformentera.convoca.online/u

30 May 2023
Office of Communication
Consell de Formentera

