

Students of Formentera music school to interpret a sampling of works by Schubert

Thursday, 19 March 2015 19:48

At 7:30pm next Saturday at the municipal cinema, students of the Formentera School of Music and Conservatory will put on a special concert to showcase the music of Franz Schubert. Born in 1797 and deceased in 1828, the famous Austrian composer is equally celebrated for his contribution to the classic sonata as for ushering in romanticism.
