

French artist Julie Aubrun's exhibition Las raíces del movimiento (“the roots of movement”) is a culling of works in watercolour on view through 19 August at Centre Antoni Tur “Gabrielet” in Sant Francesc. In the words of the artist, the collection is “formed of personalities and natural elements encountered on Formentera. The exhibition lays bare the body language employed by these individuals and that of the island's landscapes”.

Tierra, mar y viento

The installation is divided up into into three different elements: la tierra (earth), el mar (sea) and el viento (wind). The artist, who lays her head in Barcelona, journeyed to Formentera four years ago in the middle of winter and, ever since, has returned in quest of inspiration. Her work can be visited between 10 a.m. and 2 p.m. and 5 and 8:30 p.m. seven days a week.
