

Formentera Local Police report that 22 July, at roughly two o'clock in the morning, a person was arrested for allegedly endangering public health. Officers caught the individual selling a piece of hashish in the town of Es Pujols and found another three pieces of the drug and nearly €300 in cash on their person.

Roughly one hour later, an individual was arrested for allegedly damaging street fixtures and furniture. Initial evidence indicates the individual damaged vehicles and storefronts in the town of Sant Francesc with an iron chain.

Two motorists in Es Pujols were stopped on 23 July for driving under the influence of alcohol. Officers initiated the corresponding proceedings for endangering lives on the road.

All of the detainees were turned over to the Formentera Civil Guard for further investigation and searches.

Lastly, 26 July at approximately 4.00am, officers broke up a beach party in the area of Es Cavall d'en Borràs. They seized stereo equipment and a generator and cited two individuals for illegally organising the party in a protected natural area.

The cases will be referred to the Formentera Office of Environment and Balearic Ministry of Environment, which have jurisdiction over such infractions.

26 July 2022
Communications Office
Consell de Formentera