Roughly twenty islanders participated in this prestigious concert at the Igreja de Santa Cruz (Church of Santa Cruz) together with the Coimbra Teachers' Choir and Choir of Santo Agostinho, two local ensembles.

Formentera's singers performed a wide repertoire under the direction of Iranzu Bartolomé and accompanied by pianist Mar Moreno. More than one hundred singers participated in the festival. Alejandra Ferrer, vice president and education councillor, congratulated the choir on its performance and explained, "This event marks a budding fraternal relationship, and next year it will be Formentera's turn to the host this very fruitful exchange".
